FOREWORD

It gives me a great pleasure to congratulate and welcome all the local and foreign Officers who have opted to follow the Defence Services Command and Staff College (DSCSC) Course No. 18 in the year 2024.

You have earned the opportunity to join this prestigious institute which is considered as the apex of military education for middle-grade officers of the Defence Forces of Sri Lanka. The DSCSC produces officers who are well-rounded and responsible for their respective services and the prosperity of its nation.

The College has entwined the core values in all activities that would shape your character and will serve as a guide not only during your stay here but also in your entire life at large. It is my wish that those values would be absorbed by the entire student fraternity.

The erudition you all earned in the College would undoubtedly be a guiding light in your pursuit for success throughout your lives and to stand against all odds and to stand against the pressures of time by coping up with any given situation in your official, family and personal lives.

Moreover, the assiduously designed course curriculum focuses on transforming in equivalence with novel trends, whilst establishing the foundation of wisdom in future military leadership of our beloved motherland and across the globe. Moreover, it enables to enhance critical, analytical and decision making skills with a focused vision as well.

In addition, I wish to emphasize you, as the most important commodity will be able to augment the previous and the newly imparted knowledge together to expose to a systemic way of working that it is only during your tenure here.

Therefore, I urge you to embrace learning habits in this learning environment at the College, perform well and achieve true excellence while giving special considerations for the Core Values stipulated at the college. I strongly believe that all student officers will display their professional competence acquired at this prestigious College, and live up to its motto 'To War with Wisdom and Knowledge'.

I wish to extend a warm welcome to all students and their beloved family members. Further, I emphasize that the assorted nature of the unique environment undoubtedly would provide an opportunity to have productive interactions and a wonderful exposure to various military cum multicultural spheres by means of mingling and participating in varied events organized by the College and enjoying facilities. I am certain that the unique culture nurtured in the College will facilitate the pursuit of the course with a renewed vigour of strength to face the hardships of the course curriculum.

Please keep in mind that the rules laid out by the College must be strictly followed and are in place to ensure the smooth functioning of all components.

Finally, I would like to extend my best wishes for a fruitful learning experience and hope you will pursue knowledge with the highest level of determination and enthusiasm.

INTRODUCTION

1. General. The Defence Services Command and Staff College (DSCSC) considers it an honour and privilege to receive Foreign Student Officers from friendly foreign countries to attend the DSCSC Course No 18. The college takes upon itself the responsibility to facilitate the Foreign Student Officers with the best possible means of making their stay comfortable and pleasant. DSCSC considers every Foreign Student Officer as a Military Ambassador of the respective country. This assures that students who stay here in Sri Lanka are free of any discomforts. The college culture is enriched with well-known hospitality and over and above with a multitude of unique attributes, that portray Sri Lankan culture. The college ensures that all Foreign Student Officers are individually looked after and cared for by a system of Sponsor DS/Sponsor Student Officer. Further to this, the college provides all amenities, required to make them feel homely in their routine life, especially concerning studies. The college also caters to orientate family members to a multi-cultural environment during their stay.

2. Purpose. The purpose of these instructions is to provide you with the preparatory information to facilitate your attendance in the DSCSC Course Number 18 in the year 2024.

3. Further Information. You may visit the college website at www.dscsc.lk or may contact the college authorities.

CLIMATE, WEATHER AND LOCATION OF THE COLLEGE

4. Climate and Weather. Sri Lanka has a tropical climate with very distinctive dry and wet seasons having hot weather conditions. The DSCSC being in close proximity to the South Western Coast of the Island experiences a higher humidity with an average temperature ranging from 27° C - 31° C. It receives an annual rainfall between 2500 mm - 3000 mm mainly from the South West monsoon during the months from May to September.

RESTRICTED

5. Location of the College. The Defence Services Command and Staff College (DSCSC) is located at Makola, approximately 12 km East of the city of Colombo. Route to the DSCSC from Bandaranaike International Airport (BIA) - Katunayake is as shown below:

6. The postal address of DSCSC is:

Defence Services Command and Staff College

HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE IN BRIEF

7. The Defence Services Command and Staff College was initially established as the Army Command and Staff College (ACSC) on 16 March 1998 with the first course consisting of 26 Student Officers. Subsequently, on 28 August 1998, President of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka, Her Excellency Mrs Chandrika Bandaranaike Kumaratunga officially declared the college open on an invitation by the then Commander of the Army, Lieutenant General R De S Daluwatte WWV RWP RSP VSV USP LOM ndc psc.

RESTRICTED

8. During the 9 years of ACSC (1998-2006), the college produced 252 graduates, of whom 208 were from the Army, 22 from the Navy, 21 from the Air Force and 1 from the Department of Police.

9. On 22 January 2007, crossing an important milestone in the history of the Sri Lankan Armed Forces, all military doctrines, strategic level planning and teachings were brought under one entity, as practised by many other armed forces of the world, by inaugurating the Defence Services Command and Staff College (DSCSC). At the inception, the college was affiliated with the University of Kelaniya which awarded a Masters Degree in Defence Studies for the Student Officers who successfully fulfil the stipulated requirements. Subsequently, DSCSC was accredited to General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University.

COLLEGE CREST AND MOTTO

10. The crest of DSCSC signifies all the three services of the country's defence forces. The wisdom is symbolised by the 'Owl' in the middle of the crest. The Army is represented by the crossed swords on a saffron background, the Navy by the anchor on a dark blue background and the Air Force by an albatross on a light blue background. The sheaves of paddy on either side of the word ශ්‍රී ලංකා (Sri Lanka) on the outer circle denote prosperity.

11. The name Defence Services Command and Staff College connotes in the Sinhala script as, “ආරක්ෂක සේවා අණ සහ මාණ්ඩලික විද්‍යාලය”. The motto of the college is “සිහි නුවණින් රණ දෙරණට” gives the literal meaning, “To War with Wisdom and Knowledge”.

ORGANIZATION OF THE COLLEGE

12. The DSCSC is a joint services training institution under the Ministry of Defence. The college is administered by a Board of Management consisting of the Secretary to the Ministry of Defence, Chief of Defence Staff, Commander of the Army, Commander of the Navy, Commander of the Air Force, Vice Chancellor of General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University, the Commandant of the college, an Additional Secretary of the Ministry of Defence and an Additional Director from the Treasury as members, while the Brigadier Coordinating of the college is the Secretary to the Board. The Commandant is responsible to the Board of Management for the administration and conduct of training in the college. The college is organized into four wings. The three wings namely Army, Navy and Air, with greater emphasis on Joint Environment which is collectively called ‘the Faculty’ while Coordinating Wing functioning as the supporting element to the faculty.

THE VISION

13. The vision of DSCSC is ‘to be the premier centre of excellence in preparing emerging leaders of the three services and selected public officials to meet evolving defence and security challenges’.

THE MISSION

14. The mission of the DSCSC is ‘to develop the professional knowledge and understanding of selected mid-career officers of the three services in order to prepare them for the assumption of increasing responsibilities both in staff and command appointments in single service, joint and inter-agency operational environments’.

CORE VALUES

15. The college has adopted 10 core values and a driving tenet that shape the affairs of the college fundamentally. Ten core values that are entwined in the teaching of the college are:

- a. Learning.
- b. Honour.
- c. Respect.
- d. Decorum.
- e. Excellence.
- f. Innovation.
- g. Responsibility.
- h. Professionalism.
- i. Mission Command.
- j. Pristine Environment.

Driving Tenet: Common Sense

OBJECTIVES

16. The six objectives of the DSCSC are as follows:

- a. To understand the art of applying command functions and staff techniques in war, peacetime and in Operations Other Than War.
- b. To know the roles, structure, employment, and interdependence of the Sri Lanka Armed Forces within the entire spectrum of military employment.

RESTRICTED

- c. To understand the mechanism of formulating the national defence policy and its correlation with military doctrine.
- d. To develop in-depth analytical thinking and logical reasoning capability in day-to-day life as well as in an operational environment.
- e. To develop a comprehensive understanding of joint, inter-service and inter-agency operations.
- f. To inculcate the required skills to be able to communicate effectively both orally and in writing.

COMPOSITION OF STUDENT OFFICERS

17. The Course generally consists of Student Officers from Sri Lanka Army, Sri Lanka Navy, Sri Lanka Air Force and occasionally civilian officers from Governmental Ministries. In addition, Student Officers from Friendly Foreign Countries are also given an opportunity to attend each course. Each Student Officer will be under one of the three wings of the faculty.

18. For teaching purposes, the Student Officers in each wing are grouped into syndicates. There are wing specific syndicates and also joint syndicates during joint teaching, indoor and outdoor exercises. A wing specific syndicate usually constitutes about 9 to 12 Student Officers and a joint syndicate approximately about 10 to 11 Student Officers (may vary according to the total number of Student Officers in each wing). The number of the syndicates is as follows:

a. Wing Specific Syndicates.

(1)	Army Wing	-	8
(2)	Naval Wing	-	3
(3)	Air Wing	-	3

b. Joint Syndicates - 14

RESTRICTED

All rules and regulations are maintained by the college for the smooth functioning of affairs of all Foreign Student Officers. Officers committing malpractices of any nature in the college and any Foreign Student Officer caught with conduct unbecoming of an officer that amounts to copying or malpractice may be dealt with appropriate disciplinary action. Foreign Student Officers are therefore advised to face their challenges squarely and work towards self-improvement and not merely aim at scoring high grades by adapting to unacceptable methods.

88. Absence from Instruction. Any Student Officer who fails to attend instructions for a period of 1 week continuously will be liable to discontinue the course.

89. Punctuality. All Foreign Student Officers should be punctual for lectures/classes as specified in the training programme. Any Student Officer, who is not attending the scheduled training without prior permission or proper medical disposal, is liable for disciplinary action.

90. Dress Code. Foreign Student Officers will wear the working dress as per their own country and respective service regulations. The dress code for each event will be mentioned in the weekly time table. Further, they should strictly adhere to the college Dress Code, Dress Code for Officers' Mess on every occasion and should avoid the following observations.

- a. Entering office premises improperly dressed.

RESTRICTED

- b. Roaming inside the college in improper Physical Training Dress.
- c. Not adhering to the dress code prescribed at indoor and outdoor events.

91. Academic Misconduct. This includes any action or attempted action by a Foreign Student Officer that may result in an unfair academic advantage for the Foreign Student Officer, or an unfair academic advantage or disadvantage for other students. Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to:

a. Cheating.

- (1) Accessing, purchasing, exchanging or offering for purchase any item to be submitted as an assessment task.
- (2) Behaving deceitfully or dishonestly in examinations, in the preparation of assessable items or during in-class assessments.
- (3) Using or possessing prohibited equipment or material during an examination.
- (4) Sending, receiving or accessing or endeavouring to send, receive or access any source of stored electronic information during the course work unless specified by the assessor (use of data transfer device by the students should be strictly at the discretion of the assessor).
- (5) Drawing or writing on materials, other than the exam papers provided, during an examination.

RESTRICTED

b. Collusion/Facilitating Academic Dishonesty.

- (1) Assisting another Student Officer, intentionally or recklessly, to commit an act of academic misconduct.
- (2) Unauthorised collaboration with other Student Officers on assessable work.
- (3) Uploading a copy of a subject outline or other subject or course materials to a website or server without the prior express permission of the college, for any other reason than personal use (permission should be sought from the Subject Coordinator for subject materials or academic staff for all other material).
- (4) Removing or endeavouring to remove from the examination room any question or answer paper, other paper provided for the use by the Foreign Student Officer during the course of the examination, or other material which is the property of the DSCSC, unless authorised by the examination supervisor and examiner. All Student Officers should actively take part in all exercises scheduled as per the course curriculum.

c. Fraud. Impersonating another student, or a student allowing another individual to impersonate him/her, for the purpose of completing an exam, assessment task or online activity.

d. Misrepresentation/Fabrication.

- (1) Submitting a piece of work, including an assessable group work item, with the intention of deceiving the assessor regarding individual contributions to the work.

RESTRICTED

(2) Intentional and unauthorised falsification or invention of any information, experimental data or citation in an assessable item.

(3) Misleading ascription of authorship (including claiming authorship of parts of a group assignment prepared by other students).

(4) Representing data or information incorrectly, improperly or falsely.

(5) Falsely indicating participation, or recording attendance on behalf of another student, in an activity where attendance is required for assessment purposes.

(6) Submitting a text/code-matching software originality report that falsely represents the originality of an assignment submitted for assessment.

e. Obstruction/Interference. Behaving in any way that limits the academic opportunities of other students by improperly impeding their work or their access to educational resources.

g. Plagiarism.

(1) Using another person's ideas, designs, words or any other work without appropriate acknowledgement.

(2) Re-using one's own work without appropriate acknowledgement.

(3) A zero-tolerance policy is followed towards plagiarism; however, only up to 15% of similarities, due to general English and common terminology, would be accepted, which would be taken up case by case.

RESTRICTED

(4) As and when any other similar or different software to be used to determine academic integrity criteria stipulated for such software may be used in future.

PERSONAL SECURITY

92. General. Personal security is a prime responsibility of the individual. The parents must take adequate care of children during all functions and stay at DSCSC.

93. Security of Belongings. All Student Officers are requested to keep their belongings under lock and key so that they remain out of reach of any interlopers. Bank Safety lockers on a payment basis can be arranged on request.

94. Security of Control Items. All Foreign Student Officers are requested to be cautious on control items issued to them and to return them without shortfall/damage.

DEPARTURE FROM THE DSCSC

95. Clearance. Student Officers should obtain clearance from all the Branches/Sections with the assistance of the Sponsor Student Officer before obtaining the Movement Order from Admin & Quartering Branch (AQ Br) DSCSC, before the departure. The Movement Order will not be issued until the clearance form is handed over to AQ Branch. It is instructed, not to submit any request of leave without duly adopting standard procedures/formalities.

96. Flight Schedule. All students should submit their flight schedules one month prior to the Graduation Ceremony.

97. Transport. Transport will be provided up to BIA Katunayake on departure.

RESTRICTED

98. Emigration. The Student Officer is responsible for emigration clearance, customs clearance etc of him and his family.

99. Baggage. The baggage will be dispatched by the college from the students' accommodation to the departure terminal of the BIA. Onward handling is the responsibility of the individuals. All expenses for extra luggage should be borne by the Student Officer.
